CRISIS OVER DISPOSAL OF GERMAN COLONIES PASSES FOR PRESENT

American Quarters Are Confident That Compromise Plan Recognizing Principles Contended For Will Be Accepted.

President Wilson's Address, 'Tis Said, Disregarded Diplomatic Niceties

Will Not be a Party to Framing a "Peace of Loot" the President is Understood to Have Stated

PARIS, JANUARY 31. — (Associated Press)—The crisis in the peace negotiations over disposition of German colonies seems to have passed momentarily at least. It is too early to say that President Wilson's view has prevailed in its entirety, but in American quarters there is confidence that a compromise plan which has been accepted in principle will be worked out with details which will be acceptable to the American viewpoint.

When the council met today it had before it the very plain statement made by President Wilson at Wednesday's late session.

In phrases stripped of diplomatic niceties, it is understood, Mr. Wilson told members of the supreme council, he would not be a party to a division of Germany's colonial possessions among the powers which now hold them and then become party to a league of nations which in effect would guarantee their titles. There were inferences that the President even referred to a peace of "loot."

The net result of the past two days' discussion on the colonial question, in the opinion of Americans here, has been to clear the atmosphere generally and force a definite decision on all sides.

SELF GOVERNMENT TO BE PROVIDED FOR ALL THE CIVILIZED TERRITORIES

PARIS, JANUARY 31.—(Associated Press) — The agreement reached by the allied council of ten on the colonial question, says a statement today, provides that the territories which are sufficiently civilized to give an expression of their wishes as to the form of their government, will be permitted to set up such a government under the auspices of the League of Nations, obtaining either national independence or living under a protectorate of one or other of the great powers.

Arabia and Mesopotamia are considered to be of the latter class.

NO AMERICANS WILL BE SENT INTO TURKEY

United States Has Never Been at War With Turkey

(By Associated Press)

Paris, January 31.—Whether forces may be sent to Turkey for garrisoning purposes there will be no American troops among them it developed today. It is pointed out that their use for this purpose would be inappropriate as the United States has never been at war with Turkey.

The Military committee of the supreme council expects within two days to report a plan for the allotment among the various nations of the troops to be retained on the western front.

From the data available it appears by April 1st there will be fifteen American divisions remaining on the lines with 5 divisions ready for embarkation home.

A month later it is expected this aggregate will be reduced by five divisions, of which ten will be on the lines and five ready to return home.

CONVICTED NEGRO LYNCHED.

Monroe, La., January 31. — (Associated Press)—A mob Wednesday night lynched Sampson Smith, a negro convicted at Columbia Wednesday of the murder of Blanchard Warner, a white man. The jury's verdict specified that capital punishment should not be inflicted, and the Sheriff, hearing threats against the negro, decided to bring him here for safekeeping. He was overpowered on the way.

SHARP ATTACK ON PRESIDENT BY THE SENATE REPUBLICANS

Consent to Plan of Dealing With Germany's Colonies is Criticized

Lodge Leads in Attack. Saying Course is "Unbelievable"

(By Associated Press)

Washington, January 31.—Republicans of the Senate today sharply attacked the plan for dealing with German colonies and occupied territory of Turkey in Asia which, it was announced in Paris, had been proposed by President Wilson and accepted in principle by the supreme council.

Senator Lodge, Republican leader, declared the report of the plan which he said would commit the United States to co-operation in maintaining order in the occupied territory was "absolutely unbelievable" and Senator Knox, of Pennsylvania, asserted that the proposed obligations would involve "a stupendous and preposterous undertaking."

Senator Johnson, of California, denounced the method of making public the proceedings at the peace conference and declared he would never vote for a treaty that provided the sending of American troops to Africa or Asia.

Senators Walsh, of Montana, and Lewis, of Illinois, democrats, expressed doubt regarding accuracy of the statements in the dispatches. The latter declared the reported plan would violate the fundamental principle of self-determination of peoples as applied to German colonies and said he believed the real agreement was merely for their temporary administration by the League of Nations.

MEXICAN GENERAL TO OPPOSE CARRANZA

GENERAL OBERGON

General Alvaro Obregon will be the next candidate in opposition to President Carranza in the Mexican elections scheduled for the fall of 1920, according to a report from Washington. General Obregon, according to the report, during his recent visit to Washington, discussed the Mexican situation at length with American officials, and it is said he won the friendship of many American Army officers. It is believed that should Carranza's administration be assailed by a revolution and Obregon take the field in an effort to establish a stable government he would have the sympathy of leaders in American military circles.

THE BOLSHEVIKI CONCENTRATING LARGE ARMIES NEAR ARCHANGEL

Attack Made on British and Russian Positions on Thursday

(By Associated Press)

Archangel, January 30.—The Bolsheviks are concentrating a considerable number of troops in the territory between the Vologda railway and the line of the Vaga river, apparently with the object of either surrounding the allied troops in this sector or by cutting through to isolate the column to the eastward on the Dvina.

An enemy force of about 1,000 men began an attack yesterday on the British and Russian positions west of Taresevo attacking with such violence that the defense was obliged to evacuate the village of Alexieffskaya.

ADMINISTRATION NAVAL PROGRAM FULLY APPROVED

House Naval Committee Votes on New Plans

(By Associated Press)

Washington, January 31.—Unanimous approval of the administration's new three-year naval program as adopted provides for ten scout cruisers to cost up to $4,000,000 each. It was decided to leave in abeyance the proposal to construct 130 smaller craft in order that the Navy Department might recommend at the next regular session of congress types of vessels needed to round out the navy in the light of war lessons.

In addition to the battleships to cost not over $21,000,000 each the program as adopted provides for ten scout cruisers to cost up to $4,000,000 each. It was decided to leave in abeyance the proposal to construct 130 smaller craft in order that the Navy Department might recommend at the next regular session of congress types of vessels needed to round out the navy in the light of war lessons.

ENTHUSIASTIC WELCOME BY CLEVELANDERS FOR THE 83RD

Forest City Gives Noisy and Sincere Welcome to Boys on Way to Sherman.

Four Hour Lay Off for Change of Cars Gives Cleveland Opportunity to Welcome Boys.

(By Associated Press)

Cleveland, O., January 31.—A most enthusiastic welcome greeted the 331st regiment of the 83rd division, the first regiment of Ohioans to return from overseas, when they arrived here this morning for a four-hour lay-over on their way to Camp Sherman for demobilization.

Every whistle was blown, bells were rung, auto sirens shrieked and every noise-making device was brought into play. The troops arrived in three special trains, the first section reaching here shortly after ten o'clock. The soldiers were met at the station by Mayor Davis and his committee, the city council, members of civic organizations, 2,000 local members of the War Mothers of America and four bands.

Red Cross workers supplied the men with cigarettes and dainties and placed a flower in each gun stock.

After an address of welcome by the mayor the soldiers were escorted over a path strewn with thousands of carnations.

They then paraded before immense crowds through the gaily decorated business district to the armory where open house to the families and friends of the men was held. Business men and manufacturers closed their doors in honor of the troops. Late this afternoon the men will march back to the station for Camp Sherman.

In one of these the government of North Russia formally refuses to meet with the Bolsheviks. The Omsk government under Admiral Kolchak while less categorical in its reply expressed strong reserve.

NO BETTERMENT IN BRITISH LABOR SITUATION SEEN

If Anything Conditions At Belfast Are Worse.

(By Associated Press)

London, January 31.—There was still no prospect early today of any betterment in the labor situation in the United Kingdom.

If anything the situation at Glasgow and Belfast has become more serious particularly in Belfast.

The strike movement is spreading to the large industrial establishments and there are undoubted signs of coming disorders which may entail the proclamation of martial law.

The seriousness of the situation is not being ignored by the government. It was the subject for a special meeting of the cabinet yesterday.

MEETINGS ARE NEARING CLOSE

Another splendid congregation and deep interest marked the Thursday night services at the First Presbyterian church.

Miss Ada Woodward prefaced the sermon with a solo of inspiring beauty.

Contrary to his usual custom Dr.
Faulconer announced his Sunday subjects. In the morning he preaches on "The Blood of Jesus" and in the evening on "The Second Coming of Christ," one of the most interesting subjects possible to choose. The meetings close Sunday.
Dr. Faulconer took his last night's text from Romans 13-14—and delivered a fine sermon on the verse, "But put ye on the Lord Jesus Christ."

He said in part:
"Put Him on as Lord—that means that we take Him to be our Master with all that His sovereignty entails.

"Put Him on as Jesus. 'Thou shalt call his name Jesus for He shall save His people from their sins.'

"Jesus saves the sinner completely
—'we are complete in Him.'"

"Put Him on as Christ—Christ is our prophet, priest and king.

"As our prophet He reveals to us
the will of God for our salvation.

"As Priest, He has satisfied divine justice. God is reconciler—you never have to do anything to get God in a good humor. He is waiting to save.

"Christ is our King, he rules and defends us. He restrains and conquers all of His and our enemies.

"Put ye on the Lord Jesus Christ."

DR. JACKSON IS STILL VERY ILL

Word from Chillicothe is to the effect that Dr. J. C. Jackson, superintendent of the Chillicothe District of the M. E. Church is recovering slowly from a severe illness which for the past five weeks has kept him close home.

It is stated that at least another month will elapse before he will be able to resume his duties.

Wonder if the Senators who objected to the President going to Europe will object to his coming back?

FUNERAL SERVICES OF DR. A. A. HYER

A great gathering of relatives and friends, lodge brethren and his large clientele filled Grace M. E. Church
Thursday afternoon for the funeral services of Dr. A. A. Hyer and the services throughout paid high honor to both the man, in his multiple relations of life, and to the physician.

Rev. J. F. Henkle, between whom and Dr. Hyer had existed a devoted friendship, was in charge of the services, assisted by Rev. Dalby, also an intimate friend, and Rev. Arthur P.
Cherrington, who read the scriptures and the hymns "Jesus Savior Pilot Me" and "Sometime We'll Understand."

Rev. Henkle read a well written memoir and made a beautiful talk, speaking of God's purposes and his plans for his children and later introducing the personal note. He spoke specially of Dr. Hyer as the successful teacher, the efficient physician, the man of remarkable vigor and mental ability.

Rev. Dalby touched feelingly upon the family relations, the beautiful home life, which he had been privileged in knowing.

A long line of autos accompanied the family to the Washington cemetery, where, at the grave, the L. O. O.

vices.

News of Interest to Women

Washington friends of Lieutenant and Mrs. Mead (Priscilla Wood) who were wedded in Wilmington just a year ago, will remember meeting Lieutenant Warner, who attended Lieut. Mead, and it is with a great deal of regret that the announcement of his death from pneumonia, in Russia, is heard. Lieutenant Warner was an exceedingly prominent young man and a close friend of Lieutenant Mead.

By strange coincidence the maid of honor, Miss Louise Williams, of Wilmington, was also a victim of pneumonia this winter.

Our soldiers in France, regardless of the space of ocean between, may now wed their sweethearts over here according to the opinion rendered in the case of Wales T. Hawes, of Cambridge, Mass., a member of the American Expeditionary Force. The judge advocate general of the army held that the military authorities in France might facilitate the marriage by proxy of soldiers abroad to their sweethearts in United States where such marriages did not contravene state statutes. A previous opinion had disapproved such marriage.

When Mary Anderson, the beautiful American actress 30 years ago, gave up her place as recognized Queen of the English-speaking stage, she firmly declared, that never again would she take part in a theatrical performance.

Soon after quitting the stage, the actress married Count de Navarro. She expressed the conviction that she had adopted a wise course in giving up her theatrical career at the height of her glory, and stated that no inducements could be tempting enough to entice her from the enjoyment of her home at Broadway, England. She was proof against the temptation of wealth, honor and fame, but her sympathetic heart could not resist the appeals of mercy.

For the benefit of certain military hospitals and war relief committees, she renounced her vow never to reappear on the stage, and filled a two weeks engagement in London, stipulating that every cent of the profits should be added to war funds. Her engagement was opened with Gilbert's "Pygmalion and Galatea." She also appeared in some of the old Shakespearean roles in which she gained her fame.

Those who had the privilege of witnessing her benefit performances declared that her beauty, charm and talent were as fresh and as attractive as when she made her first appearance in London. This wonderful woman made her debut in 1875, but time has dealt gently with her and she retains to a remarkable degree, the personal and mental attractiveness that won for her a prominent place in the affections of English-speaking people.

Mrs. R. M. Hughey charmingly filled the role of hostess to the Thursday Euchre Club yesterday afternoon, also favoring a few outside guests.

A delicious collation was served at the close of the game.

The Thursday Kensington Club was indebted to Mrs. Glenn Rodgers for hospitable entertainment.

A few additional guests greatly enjoyed with the members the social afternoon and the tempting luncheon served.

Potted flowers bloomed luxuriously through the home.

Mrs. J. J. Kelley delightfully entertained with cards Thursday afternoon. Four tables of players contested merrily. Mrs. L. E. Miller winning a handsome deck of cards as the favor.

Pink carnations and greenery were tastefully used in decoration and a dainty refectory followed the game.

Mrs. T. C. McArthur, of Madison Mills, and Mrs. Maurice Williams assisted in the hospitalities.

Mrs. Will Hay pleasantly entertained fourteen women of the "Happy-Go-Lucky" Kensington Club, Thursday afternoon.

The women met at the Hay home and attend in a body the services at Grace Church, conducted by Miss Etta Helena Mahood, afterwards returning to the Hay home for an enjoyable social time with refreshments and Victrola music.

Mrs. E. J. Strobel has received encouraging word from her son, Ralph Strobel, located at Belpoit, France, in the Evacuation Hospital, Unit 28, who has been very ill with scarlet fever.

The "See-See," an overseas paper warmly praises the young soldier in the following clipping: "We must express our admiration for the spirit of Ralph Strobel, who after volunteering his services in the scarlet fever ward, contracted the disease and has been very ill. He is now up and is getting along nicely under the watchful care of Gentner, who was not so unfortunate."

The Junior Order, of Jeffersonville enjoyed one of the largest and most delightful banquets recorded in their calendar on Thursday night, with two hundred members of the Juniors and the D. of A. and their families assembling in the hall.

After a palatable two course banquet was served. Rev. McKinnon, a loyal member, made a splendid address extolling the principles and purposes of the organization.

An entertaining program by children was given and music throughout the evening.

The President's Return

It seems to be pretty generally conceded, that, upon his return, the President will address congress, the purpose being a dual one.

He will present, it is believed, before congress all the information obtained abroad, all the proposals, all the possibilities, all the doubts and hopes, all plans and purposes of the allied and associated nations, regarding the future sessions of the conference and the completed portions of the great task for which he journeyed abroad.

The President, it is believed, will reply to his critics and disclose, for the first time, the reasons which impelled him to go in person to Europe.

America is anxious to hear from the President. His departure for the peace conference was, so far as any public utterances were concerned, it will be remembered, rather unsatisfactory and aroused a storm of criticism. His reception by European statesmen and peoples has been so complimentary to Americans and his speeches and conduct so eminently satisfactory that the storm of disapproval has measurably subsided.

If President Wilson can, and will, upon his return take congress and the people more into his confidence it seems certain that a better feeling will exist during the closing days of the present session of congress.

If on his return with a great message, with his great record of victory in the field of diplomatic combat, he takes congress into his confidence we will hear less criticism.

The Matter of Taxes

The decision of the supreme court of the state, holding invalid the so-called classification amendment, has, it seems, badly disarranged the taxation program which the legislators had, tentatively at least, mapped out for enactment into law.

There seems yet to be no very well defined plan worked out as to just how the mounting deficits in the municipal and school funds throughout the state are to be met, but that something must be done is acknowledged by all.

In view of the decision of the court on the classification amendment and the other decision holding the action of the city council of Cincinnati placing an occupational tax in force, to be valid, we may expect to see a few at least novel methods adopted with the intent of parting the citizen from his money and giving him in return more public improvements and a better moral atmosphere.

People may not be required to pay more taxes but the method may be so wholly different that the burden will seem more difficult to carry.

Seems a Little Hysterical

Every American recognizes the existence of the duty to provide a place in the industrial life of the nation for the returning soldiers. Most people are now beginning to acknowledge that the solution of the problem of placing the returning soldiers on their feet again depends quite as much on the education of the soldiers themselves as it does upon the work of providing occupation for them.

Indications now are that there is no lack of desire on the part of the American people to discharge that duty.

As a matter of fact, the very amount of work being done, the wide extent of the agitation and the fervor with which many individuals are setting to work placing the returning soldier is indication of the existence of a desire among not a few to seize upon the conditions as an opportunity to obtain notoriety and gain favor with the thousands who are being mustered out of the service.

Perhaps the most charitable expression used in connection with much of this noisy and spectacular activity is that used by Secretary of Labor Wilson when he likened it to a kind of "hysteria" which had seized the people. That expression admits the good faith but questions the good judgment and it doubtless is the correct solution too so far as the majority of the agitators are concerned.

The returning soldiers do not all want to jump right into work the instant they land on the home shores. There are thousands who want to visit and rest and neighbor around a little while before going to work. They are entitled to do that too. The fact then that there are several hundred thousand jobless soldiers when we have them coming home at the rate of 300,000 a month does not mean chaos by any means.

A month is not a very long time for a soldier who has been through the world war to rest and visit, and if they average a month that means 300,000 idle. The figures sound alarming but mean nothing of which we need be fearful.

POEM FOR TODAY

KEEPING YOUNG INSIDE

Hello, Mister Wrinkle! Hello, Strand of Gray!
Hello, Mister Rheumatiz, how are you today!
Hello, Mister Laughing Heart! bet they better hide
When a feller's got the art of keepin' young inside!
Better, Mister Wrinkle, flee,
And Gray Strand hike along—
The heart may be December old
But May is in its song!

Hello, Mister Crick-In-Back! Hello, Mister Kink!
You're a pretty pair of guys, each of you a gink!
Hello, Mister Fifty Years! better hear me say,
The longest winter of the world is but a road to May!
Is but a road to happiness,
Old Wrinkles, that's the truth,
And every path winds round again
Unto the fount of Youth!

Oh, crusty as the back may be and rusty as the hinges
That creak whenever you bend your knee,
With half a hundred twinges,
It's nothing to be sad about, when just inside the door
Of soul and heart the spirit keeps as youthful as before!
Nothing to be sad about,
And spread it far and wide,
That years are but an instrument
For keepin' young inside!

Hello, Mister Baldy Pate! Hello, Mister Care!
Hello, Mister Indicate-That-Things-Begin-To-Wear!
Hello, Mister Shining Eyes—tell 'em what you know,
And watch the wrinkles leave the face
And hearts begin to glow!
Keeping young inside, and what
Are wrinkles—don't you see,
When April sunshine hits the spot
December has to flee!

GREAT FUTURE OF AIR NAVIGATION SEEN BY EXPERT

Problems Which Must Be Worked Out Before Aerial Traffic Is Safeguarded.

Manchester, England, December 20. —(Correspondence Associated Press) —Within the next six months the Allies should reach an agreement regulating commercial traffic in the air, and within the next five years it should be as easy and safe to pilot an airplane through fog and storm as it is to pilot a ship, asserted Lord Weir, Secretary of State for Air Forces, before an audience here the other day. In order that ambitious projects now being discussed might be entirely successful, he said, these things are necessary:

Development of navigational instruction by really sound and severe navigational training.
Creation of an energetic meteorological service especially designed to help air transport.

The adoption of improved systems of wireless telegraphy and telephony.
The adoption of a first class system of day and night marking of landing places and airdromes.

"We now possess in substantial numbers, either delivered or in course of construction, airplanes which carry a crew of seven and thirty passengers, which will climb to a height of 10,000 feet, and which will travel 1,200 miles without a stop," said Lord Weir. "One type can come down at sea, float on the waves and rise again with a full load."

"We have machines that can land safely at definitely gliding angles entirely without human control. This means that when the pilot can set his instruments by means of a kite balloon anchored in clear air, he will be able to land with safety in an air drome completely fogbound."

Lord Weir made it very plain that he did not think the best ends of civilization would be served by keeping civil aviation for a government monopoly. Cooperation between the state and individuals, he believed, would bring the best results. The state would of necessity be the pioneer, and from the present air ministry would spring an air department in the government which would not only control the administration of the Royal Air Forces, the fighting air branch of the British army and navy, but would act as the supreme authority for the development of civil aviation.

"The first step of the new ministry would be the organization of international flying, that is flying among the different countries. This would involve an international aircraft convention."

"We have already drafted the air-cles of this convention, and they are now being submitted to our Allies," continued Lord Weir. "If they substantially approve it, an international Air Conference will be held. I have reason to anticipate that within the next four or five months the principle nations of the world will have reached agreement on this momentous matter."

FRANCE'S SONS WIN UNDYING GLORY

No other nation has spilled its blood more freely than democracy might live than has France. Her sons have sacrificed more of blood and of treasure than those of any other nation. The world owes France a debt of gratitude not only for this, but for a perfect remedy for stomach liver and intestinal disorders which it is said, has saved thousands of lives the world over. The ingredients are important and placed on sale in America under the name of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy by Geo. H. Mayr, for years a leading Chicago chemist. It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded.

SOAP SCARCE AND GERMANS EAGER FOR IT

Soap Genuine Luxury in Coblenz Where Soap is Provided by the Yanks Before Washings Are Done

(By Associated Press)
Coblenz January 1.—The German washerwomen of Coblenz have won a victory on their first skirmish with officers of the American Army of Occupation. Lack of soap caused the complications.

In Germany soap is in greater demand than chocolate or tobacco. The poorer classes virtually have been without it for years, managing to get along some how by the use of inferior mineral substitutes. Many of the washerwomen of pre-war days had gone out of business—until the Americans came.

When the travel soiled Americans arrived in Coblenz by the thousands naturally there was a grand rush to send out bundles of washing. The women were perfectly willing to do the work, but they demanded a cake of soap with each consignment of clothing. The Americans scoffed at the suggestion.

The laundries had all they could do to attend to their old customers and a limited number of new ones, and bundle after bundle sent out by generals and colonels and privates too were returned in a hurry. And back again to the washerwomen went the bundles, and the women returned them to the officers with the simple explanation "No soap." All the pleadings of the German speaking orderlies had absolutely no effect.

Even the terms of the armistice were considered, but there was no reference to the shortage of soap, and so the situation became worse day after day. Just when it appeared that the Army of Occupation would be compelled to get into the laundry business a United States commissary opened in Coblenz and an officer discovered plenty of soap for a few cents a cake.

Then the bundles began going to the washerwomen again in great numbers and wrapped in the center of each was a nice little white piece of soap. And when the bundles came back all the clothing was clean and the washerwomen of Coblenz are now doing the greatest business in their history—with the Americans furnishing the soap.

GROUNDHOG OUT TO SEE SHADOW

(By Associated Press)
Hazleton, Pa., Jan. 31.—Ground hogs have declined to wait for Candlemas Day next month, the official time set for them to peer out from their cozy holes in the woods and determine what the weather will be for six weeks after their nap has been disturbed.

Instead the little animals are already prowling in the woods around this city, their period of hibernation apparently having come to an end. Weather-wise citizens are claiming this is a sure sign of the cessation of winter weather, but the skeptical ones are keeping their coal bins filled.

USE DEADLY GAS TO BLEACH SAND

(By Associated Press)
New York January 31.—The deadly phosgene gas once used on the battle front in France now has been employed in the peaceful pursuit of bleaching sand used in the manufacture of eyeglasses and optical lenses, according to Dr. David T. Day of the Geophysical Laboratory of the Carnegie Institution. This gas is composed of chlorine, oxygen and carbon monoxide. It destroys the iron oxide which causes the red and brownish tints of sand, says the American Chemical Society. It adds that the United States has a firm grip on the manufacture of phosgene gas with which this country was prepared to overwhelm the German armies. This has given the United States an opportunity to manufacture optical glass which formerly was imported, and it is announced that all the 121 varieties of glass now can be produced in this country with ease.

ITALIAN ACTOR IS DEAD

LARGE ATTENDANCE AND DEEP INTEREST AT GRACE CHURCH

Deep interest and large attendance are the foremost features of the series of evangelistic meetings which are now under way at Grace M. E. Church, and with each succeeding sermon the love for Dr. Mahood is increasing, while the women who have been fortunate enough to hear Miss Etta Helena Mahood, accomplished daughter of Dr. Mahood, are enthusiastic over her splendid work and are preparing to attend each of her most helpful lectures as well as take an active part in the general services.

The Thursday afternoon attendance at both the regular services conducted by Dr. Mahood and the lecture given by Miss Mahood, was most gratifying. Dr. Mahood emphasized the necessity of an anointed minister and an anointed church or band of workers as the essentials for successful evangelistic services.

Miss Mahood, in addition to her helpful physical culture lecture gave the women their first drill in exercises calculated to be of great value to them physically.

Thursday night in the presence of another large audience, Dr. Mahood delivered one of his forceful sermons, of which the following is a brief resume:

War is a dreadful thing. Our boys who have gone to France did not go because they loved war, but because they loved liberty and righteousness. When war became a struggle for liberty and the right, an effort in behalf of weaker nations and oppressed peoples, then it may be the sword of justice and the fist of God.

But I have heard men tell of the thrill that shook them when at night the bugle sounded the call to arms and in a few moments the sleeping soldiers became a mighty army. This text is God's trumpet call to His church at the beginning of this new age.

To be mighty for God the church must wear the beautiful garments of enthusiasm. So many churches get into a rut and the rut is always fatal to enthusiasm. There is a smug, self-satisfied officialism in many of the churches today that will not move until it is pushed. This officialism, whether found in Episcopal chair or in the pulpit or in the pew, ought to have notice now that it will have to go if it has not vision clear enough to discern the opportunities of a new age. If we should put as much enthusiasm into winning men and women to Christ as we put into the various war activities during the last year the world would soon be brought to the foot of the cross.

If we would be strong for God we must wear the garments of self sacrifice in personal liberty. Christ was continually sacrificing personal liberty for others.

FARM NOTES

Another Word About Veal.

The proposed legislation to prevent the slaughter of male dairy calves before they reach maturity would result in an enormous waste of labor and foodstuffs, is the conclusion of C. T. Conklin who recently completed a calf-feeding experiment at the Ohio State University.

Mr. Conklin has shown more food is produced by slaughtering male dairy calves between four and six weeks of age than by holding them until they are older. Notwithstanding the fact that they gain well, each successive week takes more milk to produce a pound of veal than the one preceding. Furthermore, owing to the poor form of these animals, the carcasses are poorer quality, the meat generally dryer, and there is much more loss in slaughtering. It took two pounds more of milk to make a pound of veal at eight weeks than at six weeks.

A better quality of veal was produced by feeding whole milk than by feeding skim milk, although the skim-milk fed calves were more profitable. The whole-milk fed calves, however, dressed a carcass containing at least 5 percent more edible meat. Additional experimental work will be done along this line.

Study the Herd Record.

Observation shows that many members of cow testing associations do not study their herd records. For instance, an Ohio dairyman was recently found who had not once looked at his record book during the year. When the time came for the reorganization of the cow testing association, of which he is a member, he could think of no reason why he should join again. Very shortly the matter came to the attention of the field agent in cow testing, and the member was asked to examine the herd record with the agent. The figures clearly showed that the dairyman was losing money on several of his cows. When these figures were pointed out, the man quickly recognized the value of the records and sold the boarders. It would appear from this and similar instances that no member of such an association can afford not to study his dairy herd records. Without analysis the mere gathering of figures is useless.

INVITATIONS OUT FOR BIG BANQUET

Invitation have gone forth for the annual banquet of the Fayette County Fish and Game Protective Association, which is to be held at the K. of P. banquet hall Wednesday night of next week, and which promises to eclipse all previous banquets given by this big association of men.

The invitations are accompanied by a return post-card, and all persons who expect to attend are asked to be prompt in returning the postcard of acceptance, so that the committee will know with some degree of accuracy just how many plates to lay.

The banquet is scheduled to begin at 6:30 o'clock and a program of unusual interest is being provided for the entertainment of all.

MEX. GENERALS ASK RELEASE

(By Associated Press)
Mexico City, January 31.—More than fifty generals of the Mexican army who took up arms during the revolution have asked the chief executive to release them from their military duties so that they may return to civil pursuits. Most of them have been without commands and have not been engaged in active service for several years.

I Tell You That I Can
Save You $2 to $10 per Tire

That's not "bluff"—it's a bona-fide saving proved in the fire of experience by our customers. They're doing it every day—and we can do it for you. You can't measure the merit of a tire by the price you pay for it—we learned that long ago. It's the mileage it piles up, and the dependability that you can place on it that counts.

Experience, after watching hundreds upon hundreds of tires, has taught us that Diamonds give you a better run for your money than any other tires we know. They're made by manufacturer of national reputation, they're standard, they cost less to start with than motorists usually pay for other standard tires. And they're giving our customers "Better than Average Mileage At Less Than Average Cost."

HUGE CHEMICAL PLANT IS ABOUT TO BE SCRAPPED

$50,000,000 Plant of British Government Worthless Since War Ended

Gretna, England, January 2.—(Correspondence of Associated Press).—With the ending of hostilities the British government has on its hands unused a $50,000,000 military chemical plant, the most important in the empire, employing during the war 22,000 persons. Apparently the government is undecided whether to try to utilize it or to abandon it. Economists say it is too inaccessible for private commercial use and that its plant and machinery should be scrapped and the government should pocket the loss. The workers are rapidly being demobilized and the population of Gretna has shrunk to 5000. Recruited as they were from almost every branch of industry, many of them unskilled and inexperienced, the absorption of these workers into the new economic order is giving no little concern to the government and to themselves, for economically Great Britain has not yet recovered her balance.

The unemployed munition workers—and Gretna is only one government activity of many similarly affected—are taking the "unemployment wage" provided by the government, and are making the most of it. As this wage is much less than received while making shot and shell, being about $7.50 a week, there are fears they will soon miss their high wages and in time may become the cause of industrial unrest. Some time must elapse while military plants are being transformed into factories that will produce the things needful in ordinary life.

The factory has a wonderful housing system with comfortable homes, churches and recreation halls for the workers, and in ordinary circumstances it ought to be useful for many years to come. But the highly explosive nature of the product necessitated the planting of the industry outside the ordinary walks of commerce and manufacture. This makes it reasonably certain in the minds of economists that Gretna will have to be abandoned.

BREAK-DOWN OF TRANSPORTATION CAUSE OF FAMINE

Grave Conditions in Russia Not Due to Lack of Food But Demoralization of Traffic

Food Abundant in Rural Russia But Residents of the Cities Starving

London, December 31.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press).—Demoralized transportation, not lack of food, is responsible for the famine conditions in Russian cities and towns, according to Beslie Urquhart, a capitalist with large metallurgical and mining interests in Siberia. Mr. Urquhart, who recently returned from Russia, has been appointed by the British government to assist in the revival of Siberia's economic life.

Considering the depreciation of the ruble, he told a representative of the Associated Press, food prices in Siberia are practically normal. In Western Siberia, he said, there was so much food on hand that a considerable surplus could be sent into other parts of Russia, and the same applies, he understood, to Southeastern Russia and to the Ukraine.

"Broadly speaking, it can be said that in the country as a whole there is no shortage of food, and although large towns of north and central Russia are starving there is plenty of food in the villages. The difficulty of transport, due to the disorganization of the railways, the industrial strikes and risings which brought about the flooding of the Donetz coal mines and the decrease in the supply of fuel to less than 25 percent of normal production, civil war in the country and economic chaos generally are all reasons for the state bordering on famine in the towns.

"Ekibastous, the greatest wheat producing province in Siberia, with large stocks of wheat lying less than 100 miles away, is living from hand to mouth as it is practically impossible to transport the wheat for lack of strap iron with which to make tires for wagon wheels.

"The continual increase in wages in the industrial and manufacturing towns has raised the cost of iron, steel, clothing, boots and other essentials of everything indeed that the peasant wears and uses—and the peasant represents 85 per cent of the population of the country—to 20 and even 50 times their normal value. The town workers, or 15 percent of the population, however, would not permit the Soviet government to raise the maximum prices fixed for food. This one-sided legislation not unnaturally incensed the peasant. While he had to pay 20 and 50 times the normal price for all essential commodities produced by the industrial workers in the town, he received only about double the normal pre-war prices for the produce of his own labor.

"Therefore, the peasant sits tight on his grain. He refuses to sell wheat to the Bolsheviks at the requisition price of 1 1/2 cents a pound, when he can sell it at 96 cents a pound or even more. When it can be got, bread today in Petrograd or Moscow is 16 rubles or more a pound. The peasant is willing to barter his food for cloth, steel, textiles and other necessities, but the industrial workers have ruined industry. Nothing is being produced, there is nothing to barter with. The peasants have large accumulations of paper money, but this is of no value for they can buy nothing with it. Meanwhile the peasants are hoarding their produce.

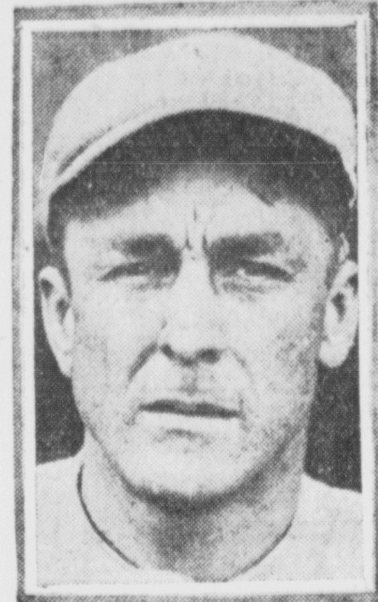

"In a sense then the peasant is master of the situation. He has the food, the townspeople have not. The Bolsheviks have tried with varying success to take wheat and other produce by force to feed the proletariat of the towns, but neither the Germans in the Ukraine, as they have found to their cost, nor the workmen in the towns can get food from the Russian peasant if he does not choose to let them have it."

Since the foregoing statement was made it has been announced that the Allied nations have made arrangements to take over the operation of the trans-Siberian and Chinese Eastern railways with John F. Stevens, the American engineer, in charge of their operation.

EIGHT-HOUR DAY SOUGHT.

Boston, January 31.—(Associated Press).—The Executive Board of the National Amalgamation of Textile Operatives voted unanimously at a meeting here yesterday to support the movement for a 48-hour week in textile mills of the country. BANQUET HELD BY THE A. P. L.

An event of great enjoyment took place in the Cherry dining room, Thursday night, when members of the local branch of the American Protective League, a secret organization which rendered great aid to the government during the war and was recognized as a branch of the department of justice, enjoyed a turkey dinner and swapped stories of their experience during the interesting war days. A number of friends were entertained by members of the A. P. L., and the Washington Band rendered two or three pleasing selections during the affair.

Messrs. Heatt Dones, formerly of New Holland, now first assistant to the U. S. Attorney General and Robert E. Pfeiffer, also of the Attorney General's department, were present, and recounted their share of the interesting experiences during recent investigations.

GERMANY WILL GET FOODSTUFFS FROM AMERICA

(By Associated Press)

New York, January 31.—Under the general food program outlined by the allies, Germany will be allowed about 6,000,000 bushels of breadstuffs a month, mostly from the United States, if she can find the money to pay for it, according to a detailed statement of foreign grain requirements cabled by Herbert Hoover to Julius H. Barnes, president of the United States grain corporation, and made public here tonight.

Between now and July 1, the statement said, France and Italy will take 80,000,000 bushels of wheat and flour from the grain corporation, while the allied governments will take also about 75,000,000 bushels of oats.

If restrictions are removed on cereal imports to European neutrals, they will require about 60,000,000 bushels of wheat, rye or barley in grain or flour, to bring their bread consumption to normal, mostly from the United States.

"As we have already shipped from the United States over 160,000,000 bushels of wheat or flour, the grain corporation will easily dispose of all wheat, with perhaps a small carry-over, if any, at the next harvest," the cable said.

HUGE NAVY IS ADVISED FOR UNITED STATES

Admiral Mayo Declares World Expects United States to Expand Navy

(By Associated Press)

Washington, January 31.—In urging immediate naval expansion today before the house naval committee, that votes today on the administration's new building program, Admiral Mayo, commander-in-chief of the Atlantic fleet, said:

"The league of nations is rapidly getting down to a sewing circle, with no means of enforcement and to international police force. Now is the time to go the limit in expanding our navy."

He agreed with Chairman Padgett, that Congress should authorize the construction of the number of capital ships, leaving the decision as to type, character, armor and speed to be worked out by the naval experts.

In urging naval expansion the admiral said that the present was the opportune time and that American expansion was expected by the world.

"Do you think this is the opportune time to expand because other countries will stop building because of the war debts?" asked Representative Kelly of Michigan.

"Partly, but not primarily," responded Admiral Mayo. "We can expand now because the world expects it, but to do it later might cause trouble and it certainly would cause inquiry."

England to Keep Ahead
"I think England will always try to keep ahead of the world," he continued.

"Then it is a race between us and England," said Mr. Kelly.

"It may be," answered the admiral. Admiral Mayo, when questioned regarding naval personnel, endorsed the recommendations of the bureau of navigation for no fewer than 1000 officers in the navy by 1920, and urged that the complement of the ships in both officers and men be kept at war strength. He said the present shortage of naval officers is serious.

"No matter what the peace conference does," he declared in urging further building, "nothing this Congress can do will be up to our naval requirements. There was never a time when it was so necessary for the United States to be thoroughly prepared."

Commander Pye, who accompanied the admiral, recommended construction of a superdestroyer larger and more heavily armed than those now building.

FESS MENTIONED AS DRY CANDIDATE

The New York Herald Thursday featured a dispatch from Columbus, which declares it to be the purpose of the Anti-Saloon League to bring about the nomination of Simeon K. Fess of Yellow Springs for the presidency on the Republican ticket in 1920. The dispatch, which credits Wayne B. Wheeler with being the dominating spirit of the league, says that the organization's present hope and plan is to secure prohibition throughout the world and that Congressman Fess has long been held in reserve as a suitable man, as president, to push this work along.

BAKER CHANGES PROMOTION PLAN IN THE U. S. ARMY

(By Associated Press)
Washington, January 31.—Secretary Baker has issued instructions modifying to a great extent his blanket prohibition against promotion of officers, promulgated by the war department immediately after the armistice was signed and which has been sharply criticized in Congress. Under the new policy, contained in a memorandum dated January 25 addressed to General March, chief of staff, and made public today, General Pershing is authorized to make such promotions as vacancies in the authorized strength of his command may permit, and the same practice will be followed with respect to the army in the United States.

To Send Surplus Officers Home.

The new policy applies up to and including the grade of colonel, and under it officers, both line and corps who are holding commands or details which should carry with them higher rank than the holders now have will be advanced. This is to be accomplished in the army overseas, even though there may be officers of proper rank for such positions. General Pershing being given specific authority to fill vacancies by promotion rather than transfer when in his judgment that course is wise. He also is directed to send home any surplus officers.

BUTTER PRICES CUT AGAIN.

Chicago, January 31.—(Associated Press)—New efforts to cultivate friendship with the consumer were made Thursday on behalf of leading food products. The price of butter wholesale was subjected to a fresh cut of 2 to 3 cents a pound, according to grade. At the same time eggs wholesale were reduced 2 to 2 1/2 cents a dozen.

MINE TIMBER IS HARD TO GET

(By Associated Press)
Philadelphia January 31.—Scarcity of mine timber is a serious problem that confronts the anthracite coal mining industry today.

Lumber is just as necessary in mining coal as it is the drill, the blast, the motor engine and the mine car. Every foot of fresh wood is being jealously husbanded for the reason that practically all of the mountains in the anthracite region have been denuded of timber.

Shipments of gangway, slope and shaft timber from the south have been largely cut off by demands of the government. In instances, timber shipped from Georgia consigned to the mines was commandeered by the government. Concrete is coming more and more into use, but at the present time timber is required and it is scarce. Without it, progress cannot be made in efforts to increase the output of coal.

APPROVED PLAN FOR MEMORIAL

(By Associated Press)
Washington, January 31.—The American Forestry Association has received information from Frederick L. Smith of Philadelphia that the late Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, in one of the last letters he wrote, approved the plan suggested by Mr. Smith for the Liberty Memorial by linking up the highways of the country, in proving them with suitable bridges and parks and planting trees in certain places along the highways. This plan was proposed as a means of commemorating the Americans who lost their lives in the war.

REHABILITATION OF FAMILY MADE BY SMALL EFFORT

Interesting Outcome Of A Truancy Case Within Confines of This City Told By Probation Officer.

There have been several cases of rehabilitation in Fayette Co. since the Probation System was started in November and one of the most interesting cases related as follows:

A widow and one son lives in this city. After the husband's death the mother went to work in a factory and the boy gradually lost interest and dropped out of school. Later he became incorrigible and refused to obey the mother or the school authorities. He was brought into the Juvenile Court, ordered back to school and placed upon probation.

The probation officer visited the home frequently, kept in touch with the teacher and has weekly talks with the boy when he brought his teacher's report to the probation officer every Friday afternoon.

During these conferences with the lad it was found that he had a deep desire to help his mother and did not like to see her work so hard, especially since she had lost the sight of one eye and was not at all strong. The real cause of his truancy was a desire to obtain a position that would make him independent and thereby relieve his mother of a portion of her burden.

At first the boy was surly and unresponsive but later when he and the probation officer had become good friends she told him she would help him by keeping his mother.

She reported the condition of the mother's eyes to the Blind Commission of Ohio who sent a nurse to investigate the case. It was found that nothing whatever could be done for the mother's eyes and blindness would follow in due time.

It was then arranged through the Blind Commission that a teacher be sent to this city twice a week to teach the mother what is known as blind sewing, to be done entirely without the use of the eyes. In a year she will probably become efficient in this line and the articles she makes will be sent to Columbus where the Commission has a large sales room and stock room, and she will be paid the difference between the cost of the material and the selling price of the article.

Numbers of blind patients all over the state have thus been made economically independent and allowed to remain in their own homes.

The local woman will also receive a small allowance known as a blind pension.

This method has proved to cost much less than to wait until the patient becomes totally blind and then the cure for her in an institution. The mother is now one of the happiest women in the county, her son is doing good work in school and the family is rehabilitated both economically and morally.

MUCH INTEREST IN GAME TONIGHT

The Washington High Basketball Squad will leave tonight for Hillsboro where they will meet the Hillsboro High School team.

A great deal of interest is centered around this game on account of the fact that Hillsboro captured the cup at the Greenfield tournament last season. By winning this game or by giving the Hillsboro boys a stiff game the Washington team will be able to gain a place in the sun for the tournament to be held at Greenfield the 21 and 22 of February.

Captain Willis will take the first and second teams and every effort will be made to bring back the bacon.

WOULD PREVENT BUYING SITES

(By Associated Press)

Washington, January 31. — Purchase by the war department of sites of existing army training camps would be prohibited without specific authority from Congress, under a resolution offered in the House by Representative Anthony of Kansas at the request of the members of the military committee.

The resolution was introduced after Secretary Baker and Assistant Secretary Crowell had appeared before committee to urge acquisition of the sites of all national army camps, and two national guard camps, Sevier, South Carolina, and Kearney, California. Mr. Baker told the committee that he believed the department had authority to acquire the sites, but that Congress unquestionably could stop it from carrying out such a plan.

BORAH OPPOSES COLONY CONTROL

(By Associated Press)

Washington, January 31. — Vigorous opposition to plans reported from Paris for the internationalization of former German colonies was voiced in the senate yesterday by Senator Borah of Idaho, Republican. The speaker said he was not in favor of the United States assuming any "obligation to control, govern or be responsible for any part of the German possessions."

Senator Borah said Australia in demanding the German islands of the Pacific, has announced a Monroe doctrine for Australia, and added:

"If we, as a member of a league, interfere with the Monroe doctrine of Australia, or the Monroe doctrine of Japan, or of some other nation, how long would it be before they would interfere with our Monroe doctrine."
